

Osney Island Residents' Association Newsletter

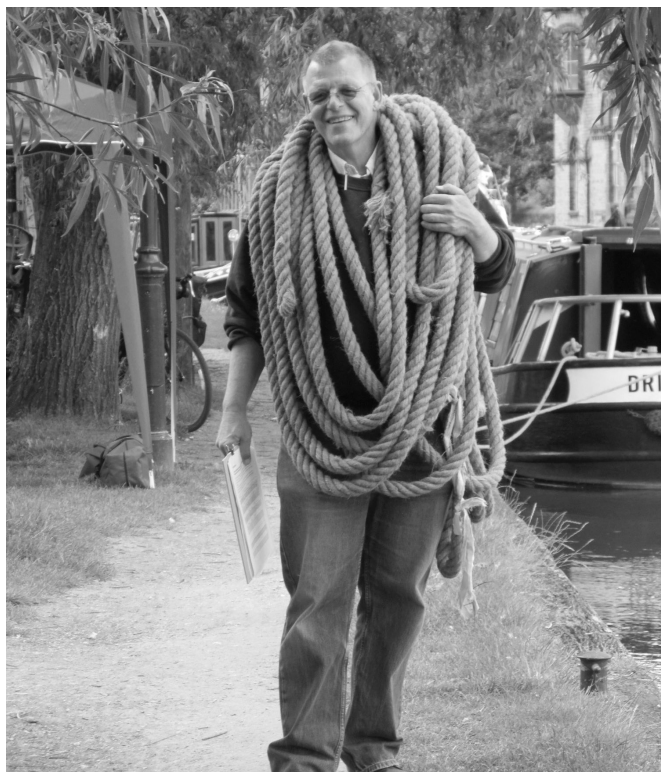

www.osneyisland.co.uk
January/December 2017

It is with great sadness that we report the death of Jan-Georg Deutch who died on 22 December 2016 aged 60. His funeral on 12 January at Binsey church, where he often walked, was packed to the rafters with colleagues, friends and neighbours. Simon Stubbings, a good friend, writes his obituary with additions from Islanders.

Dr Jan-Georg Deutsch's death brought to an end a life of many facets. Oxford University knew him as an Associate History Professor, specialising in Africa, where he inspired many students. St Cross College knew him as a loyal Fellow who participated actively in its life. Many outside Oxford knew him for other reasons. They will be writing their own appreciations.

We in Osney knew him as someone with a strong sense of community. Georg relished life on the Island where, throughout the decade and a half that he lived in Bridge Street, he felt he belonged. He loved the area, the people, the pubs, walks on Port Meadow and along the canal. However, Georg realised that successful communities need their members to contribute. He committed himself to Island activities and made his mark in many ways. A founder member of the Boat Club, he also served on the OIRA committee, becoming its chairman. The OIRA committee will miss someone who contributed his clear thinking and social concern to their proceedings. Those of us who enjoy the flower boxes in Bridge Street will recognise Georg for his role in organizing them. Veterans of the 2012 Osney Olympics will recall Georg's organization of the Tug of War (which included the provision of an impossibly heavy rope that contesting teams struggled to lift, let alone pull). Participants in the annual OxClean will remember the way he cajoled others into sharing his belief in a tidy environment: often in most unpromising weather. Despite his heavy academic workload, Georg found time to speak at the West Oxford Academy. Many of us will remember the shout and perilously extravagant wave with which he greeted acquaintances as he rode past on his bicycle. Georg felt himself, and made himself, part of Osney.

It is on individuals such as Georg that our community relies for its success and friendly atmosphere. We will all miss him.

Island email list

From Robert Lawrence: If you've not yet done so why not subscribe to the Island email service? Join up to read and share news and opinion, buy, swap and sell, learn about our social events, and much more. The OIRA (Osney Island Residents Association) email service is free, safe to use, carries no commercial advertising, is restricted to use by its residents only, will never divulge your personal details to a third party, and any message sent to the list is checked for propriety before distribution. So if you haven't subscribed yet, why not do so now by sending a join request to the list manager at osiramanager@gmail.com.

And speaking of which...

The Island email list is so successful that the newsletter is now taking a slightly different direction. It used to carry quite a few things for sale or wanted – which the email list now does so well. So, I need more news please! Items such as new babies, new or departing neighbours, bits of local history and reminiscences, salacious gossip (only kidding) are perfect. If you've got news please contact me on elizabeth@newberyandengland.com

Community exhibition at the Museum of Oxford

This is a project to celebrate the contributions made by people who have lived, worked or travelled to Oxford. The Museum is collecting stories and objects from now until the end of the exhibition 'Journeys to Oxford' to open in summer 2017, so get in touch through the website museum@oxford.gov.uk or 01865 252334 if you would like to contribute.

Woolly Hugs

From Ally Stot: Woolly Hugs <http://beta.woollyhugs.com/index.php/current-projects/> (charity registration number 116741) is an online community of people making and collecting knitted and crocheted items for a variety of important causes. One of their current projects is making blankets and other items for refugees. I wondered if there were people on the island who would like to knit squares for blankets that will be sent on to refugees? I am happy to be a collection point (on West St) for the knitted squares and send them on to Woolly Hugs for them to make up into blankets. Beginner and more experienced knitters are welcome, see their project information below.

This is what Woolly Hugs are asking for:

- We need 12 inch or 6 inch squares. Knit or crochet both equally welcome.
- Yarn to be used - any good quality acrylic DK, for example Stylecraft special DK.
- Any colour, any style, it is all good.
- Squares equally welcome if made by beginner or expert. Truly.
- No one need think theirs wouldn't be good enough. It will be.

Meditation Matters on West Street

Each Wednesday morning at 7.15 we offer a space to come together and sit in silent meditation for half an hour. Sitting in this way with an attitude of kindness and openness towards ourselves can reconnect us to the great wellspring that we already are. As we begin to taste this wellspring our experience shows us that the world is not the divided place that our thoughts appear to shape it into. Making space in our busy lives to pause, and open to what is actually happening within and around us can bring insights to help navigate our way in these times of great change, challenge and opportunity. All are welcome; no experience of meditation is necessary. For further information please contact Ally, Allysoilandsoul@gmail.com or Derek, Derek@outofthewood.co.uk www.Allystott.co.uk

Accommodation needed

My name is Liz Schrecklinger, I am 37 years old and seeking to move back to Oxford. I've been living in a very nice flat, but it is in a very rural location. This makes it hard for me to manage my commitments in Oxford and to work more flexible hours. I would be happy to hear about any vacant flats or a narrowboat (I am an experienced boater!) for rent from the beginning of 2017. If you can help, contact me by text

07981043287 or email to lillired@hotmail.com

Ten Mile Menu

From Amanda Holden: I'd like to make a recommendation for 'Ten Mile Menu' (www.tenmilemenu.co.uk/). This is a company which puts together produce from various local farms and delivers it to the door in Oxford on Fridays. You order online, either as a one-off or through setting up regular orders. The organic vegetable boxes are from Sandy Lane farm, and these are excellent, with flexible add-ons. We also buy milk, cream, and meat (including game and delicious sausages). The food is of excellent quality and very fresh, and arrives in beautiful condition. Delivery is free if you order a veg. box. They've only recently started delivering to Oxford, and I really can't recommend this company highly enough.
